MAGGIEL'S CHILLS AND FEVER PILLS!

Maggiel's Fever and Ague Pills!!

MAGGIEL'S FEVER AND AGUE

PILLS!!

THESE famous remedies, known throughout the great West of the United States for their extraordinary cures of

are now thoroughly introduced in the State of North Carolina, and can be obtained of all enterprising, first class druggists.

They act as a tonic to all debilitated systems, taken in doses of before meals, and should be found in every family residing in miasmatic districts.

To any skeptic or one who does not believe in these marvellous preparations,

A Box Will be sent Free

If he is not cured with one and not more than two boxes, no charge will be made. The price of the Pills is high—say but as they are a perfect cure without trouble or inconvenience, the charge is reasonable enough.

Address J. MAGGIEL, M. D., 43 Fulton St. New York.

CAUTION.

Watch narrowly and guard yourselves vigilantly against counterfeits. I have just suppressed a notorious counterfeit in Wisconsin, after much trouble and expense. Purchase of only first class druggists and never of peddlers or traveling dealers.

A BOON TO THE SICK. AND THE LIGHT OF THE WORLD.

DR. MAGGIEL'S PILLS AND SALVE.

These Life-giving remedies are now given publicly to the world. For over a quarter of a century of private practice the ingredients in these

LIFE-GIVING PILLS!

Have been used with the greatest success. Their mission is not only to prevent disease, but to cure. They search out the various maladies by which the patient is suffering and re-invigorate the failing system. To the aged and infirm a few doses of these valuable PILLS will prove to be

A VERY FOUNTAIN OF YOUTH,

For in every case they add new life and vitality, and restore the waning energies to their pristine state.—To the young and middle-aged they will prove most invaluable, as a ready, specific and sterling medicine. Here is a dream realized, that Ponce-de-Leon sought for three hundred years ago, and never found. He looked for a fountain that would restore the old to vigor and make youth ever

An Eternal Spring!

It was left for this day and hour to realize the dream, and show in one glorious fact, that magic that made it fair.

THESE FAMOUS REMEDIES

Cannot stay the flight of years, but they can force back and hold aloof, diseases that might triumph over the aged and the young. Let none hesitate then, but seize the favorable opportunity the offers. When taken as prescribed—

FOR BILLIOUS DISORDERS

nothing can be more productive of cure than these Pills. Their almost magic influence is felt at once; and the usual concomitants of this most distressing disease are removed. These remedies are made from the purest

VEGETABLE COMPOUNDS.

They will not harm the most delicate female, and can be given with good effect in prescribed doses to the youngest babe.

FOR CUTANEOUS DISORDERS

And all eruptions of the skin, the SALVE is most invaluable. It does not heal externally alone, but penetrates with the most searching effects to the very root of the evil!

DR. MAGGIEL'S PILLS.

Invariably cure the following Diseases.

Asthma,
Bowel Complaints,
Coughs,
Colds,
Chest Diseases,
Costiveness,

SEVERAL Patrons of the Concord Female College have requested my aid in securing good for their use. This has induced me to make arrangements with some of the best manufacturers, which enable me to furnish instruments of the first class at reduced prices. I can save each purchaser from $40 to $100. Price lists of the manufacturers will be sent to those who desire them, to aid them in making selections.

When selections shall have been made the money can be sent to me at my expense, by the Southern Express, and a Piano will be shipped to the Depot the purchaser may designate. Each Piano sold will be fully warranted. Address me at Salisbury, N. C.

SALISBURY BRASS BAND

REORGANIZED 15 January, 1866, on a larger scale than formerly, under the direction of its former tutor, W. H. NEAVE, who was also chief music writer and Band Teacher in Gen. Lee's army. He will be assisted in lead-ing in direction by his brother, Ed. Neave, leader during the entire late war of Gen. Lee's best and most favorite band, viz: 26th N. C. The Band is composed of the best members of the old Band, together with the best members of several of the fine Bands trained by W. H. Neave, in camps, who have moved to Salisbury from all points in the State to follow their respective vocations and continue the study and practice of music. This Band will be a permanent institution for all State and festive occasions, and will equal the best to be found in the world, if sustained by those desiring a first order of Brass and String music. If not, it must go down after this year.

W. H. Neave is sole agent for the celebrated Dodsworth Brass instruments, proved and warranted to him, as by him to others, now, the most pleasing, effective and popular Piano in use, selected by his friends, H. B. Dodsworth and Kent Botsford, New York. For beginners, medium players, and advanced musicians, no trash for either.

Music composed and arranged to order for Parlor, Orchestral and Brass Band use for any kind and number of instruments.

Salisbury has been selected for Musical Headquarters for its central position.

N. B. No letters of enquiry for musical information, but with no view to business with Mr. Neave or Band, must contain two postage stamps

The Meeting in Randolph---Gov. Worth.

We publish, in another column, the proceedings of a public meeting held in the county of Randolph, on the 8th inst. It will be seen that resolutions were unanimously adopted, endorsing the generous policy of the President, and that, with barely a disenting voice, the administration of Gov. Worth was heartily approved, and he recommended for re-election. Our advices from every section of the State confirm the preferences of the people of Randolph thus expressed. The efficiency, integrity and straight-forwardness of Gov. Worth's executive conduct have commanded the popular approval in the most unmistakable manner. Large numbers of those who opposed his election, from honest but mistaken consideration of policy, now fully sustain and endorse him; and there can be no doubt but that, at this moment, he is the choice for re-election of more than three-fourths of the voters of the State.

We highly applaud the patriotic stand taken by the Hon. Robert P. Dick, in the meeting referred to. Mr. Dick was an earnest supporter of the Ex-Provisional Governor at the last election, and his "unmistakable loyalty" has been repeatedly endorsed by the Standard. His sentiments, as reported in the proceedings of the meeting, do credit alike to his head and heart, and the influence of his example and opinions will be productive of good.

It must be a source of great gratification to Gov. Worth, while the Standard is daily endeavoring to prejudice the State at Washington, by misrepresenting his administration of its affairs, to find conscientious gentlemen like Mr. Dick rebuking such suggestions and sustaining his official course.

Yankee Enterprise.

We learn, from the Newbern Times, that a company of Northern men are running a line of stages, three times a week, from Plymouth to Washington, and that another company are running a line, in connection with it, from Washington to Newbern, thus completing the old line from Newbern to Norfolk, by the steamers from Plymouth to Blackwater, and thence by the Seaboard Road. By the way, we have been surprised that Northern men have not taken up some of the mail contracts in the South. The Southern people are too poor to carry the mails at the prices offered by the Government, but Northern enterprise and energy can make the venture pay.

Northern men of enterprise and capital, coming among us to carry on any business which tends to revive and recuperate our wasted country, if they are gentlemen, will always find a welcome in the South. Those who come among us to spy out our leanness and to make an evil report against us,—who come to drain us of the little we have, and then to abuse and vilify us—who smell "disloyalty" whenever a little girl sings the praises of Stonewall Jackson or a little boy throws up his hat for Gen. Lee,—who tremble, like an aspen leaf, at the idea of the military being removed, as if they were among semi-barbarians who deal in the stiletto or the bowie-knife—we have no use for. There is hardly a foot of Southern soil, that is not polluted by men of just such a stamp. They were nothing at home, and coming South has not improved them.

But the generous, gallant soldier, or the high-toned Northern gentleman, or the honest, industrious, energetic, and skillful capitalist or working-man, who may come among us for good purposes, are always welcome. We forget the past, when they forget it; when they are ready, with generous hearts and sentiments, to encourage and help us, and when they show by their deportment that they have confidence in Southern honor and integrity.

"Oh! Oh! Howard," General and "Head Centre" of the Freedman's Bureau.

He says, in the letter published yesterday: "I expect denunciation of this Bureau." No doubt you do, and have good grounds for it.

"The Bureau does not do enough to secure the rights of the negro." Very true,—see Gen. Steedman's report.

"It does not burn negro churches and school houses." But the Radicals, who wish to strengthen the hands of Thad. Stevens, Sumner and "Oh! Oh!" do.

"It will endeavor to prevent starvation."—Yes, by employing, in some instances, it seems, the negroes to work on rented plantations and feeding and clothing them, not out of private pockets, but at the expense of the General Government.

"O wad some power the giftie gie 'em
To see themselves as ithers see 'em!"

Telegraphic Dispatches.

We are gratified at being able to state that we have effected a satisfactory arrangement, by which, from and after Monday next, the Sentinel will be supplied with the latest and fullest news, reports of markets, &c., from all sections of the country, by telegraph. We discontinued this feature of our paper, some time since, for the reason that the matter sent us was wretchedly inadequate to the expense involved. We have every assurance now, however, that our dispatches will be of the right stamp to satisfy the public taste and our own requirements.

Cowardly Developments.

The assurances which are said to have been given, recently, to Gens. Steedman and Fullerton, while in this State, by both Northern and native individuals, that they believed it would be unsafe for freedmen and Union men, or Northern men, to remain in the State, if the military were removed, were but the ebullitions of spleen and cowardice. The statement is a libel upon the honor and quiet bearing of our people. The suspicions which such representations are designed to produce are shown to be utterly groundless, by the facts which have been developed in all those sections of the State farthest removed from the actual presence of the military and the Freedman's Bureau. In those sections quiet and industry generally prevail, and the few instances of lawlessness are readily checked by the magistracy and people.

These charges come from men who know they have rendered themselves odious to Southern society, by their mean and ungenerous course towards our people. They know they have grossly injured and maligned us, and are consequently the objects of general scorn.—Having injured us, they hate us, and hence they fear us. But they are the fears of the guilty, who know that they deserve punishment; and hence they dread the hour to arrive for the military to leave.

Now, so far as our people are concerned, there is no feeling of hostility to the military, officers or men, who confine themselves strictly to their duty. We do not believe there is, at present, any real necessity for their presence, and with this conviction, on the part of the people, they feel that such a continuance indicates a lack of confidence on the part of the government, which we do not merit.

We repeat, no honest, upright, quiet man or woman, black or white, is in any danger from the retaliation of the Southern people, unless they choose to bring themselves in direct conflict with men who will bear no insult or menace without revenge. But men, native or Northern, who are afraid to live with us, in the absence of the military, had better leave in advance. There is really no place for them among us, so long as they esteem us as enemies.

Complaints of the West.

The last Asheville News punishes an illustration of our position in regard to the unwise policy pursued by some Southern Rail Roads.—It puts the case exactly and forcibly:

"Will any one tell us why it is that goods shipped from Baltimore to Greenville, E. Tenn., cost $1,50 per hundred less than to Morganton, N. C? We are anxious to know, for we, in common with our people, are interested. In shipping by the Tenn. route, there are, besides water communication, three R. R. freights to pay, which is exactly the number by the N. C. route, and we believe a shorter line of travel.—Yet it costs so much more via Morganton that our merchants have quit the route. We are grieved. Would any one believe that the freight alone from Salisbury to Morganton is $1 per 100 lbs? Such is the case—old wagon rates! We are absolutely hungry to ship to Morganton, but ah! that odd dollar and upwards! 'Tis more than poor human nature can bear these hard times! Won't our beloved friends beyond the mountains let us have our freights anyhow at wagon rates? Who will hear our cry? Is every body deaf and dumb, and blind, and mad? We hope not, but have our fears.

Gentlemen, of the old North State, east of the ridge, we give you notice that we shall continue to remind you that hauling 500 lbs. of freight at 50 cents is better than 100 lbs. at $1."

Here is at least one of the secrets of the ill-success of North Carolina Rail Roads. Instead of stimulating and encouraging industry and enterprise, they directly put a stop to both. North Carolinians, perhaps, are as characteristically stubborn as any people living. For the same reason that they won't make cotton, it the government taxes it five cents per pound, they won't make wheat, corn, cotton or buy goods, just to keep Rail Roads afloat. They say "it is just as cheap to play for nothing as to work for nothing." We believe they are nearly half right,—though we prefer work to play.

It is the old-fashioned way we have of doing things, that has nearly eaten up our Rail Roads. Only think of it, $1 for freight on 100 lbs. from Salisbury to Morganton. We believe it is about 60 miles!

The Colorado Bill.

President Johnson's veto of the bill for the admission of Colorado as a State of the Union is published, at length, in the Northern papers. We have not the space, ourselves, to publish it in full. He alleges, among other reasons for returning the bill, that it is not certain a majority of the people of the Territory desire the change—that the population is small, and is diminishing rather than increasing, and that it is not proper to admit new States into the Union so long as eleven of the older States are kept out, who should be consulted in regard to the matter.

President Johnson, in vetoing this bill, has again interposed his authority to "protect the people of the country from the acts of wicked, malignant and mischievous men." It was one of the most unblushing outrages of the present shameless Congress. There was not a tittle of evidence to show the slightest claim of the Territory to be recognized as a State. A little knot of squatters numbering a few thousands were all that composed the constituency,—not a fourth of the number required to form a Congressional district in the States. And yet to introduce two new Radicals in the United States Senate and one Representative into the House, and thus to increase the Radical strength and enable that unprincipled faction to defy the President and the more successfully to triumph over his measures, this wild waste of a Territory, with its ship-load of squatters, was to be erected into a State!

Rather Old.—We received, on yesterday, a letter from Newton, Catawba County, giving us the vote of that county for Governor at the last election. The letter was dated "Nov. 10, 1865." This is the best commentary we can give upon the present condition of our postal arrangements.

Gold closed in New York, at our latest advices, at 130½. Cotton had advanced from one to two cents. Sales of 1600 bales at 35 @ 36.

The Revenue.

The following is the opinion of the Public Treasurer, to which we have heretofore referred. It covers some important points, to which we need not direct the attention of the people, as everything connected with the subject of taxation, now-a-days, is read with avidity.

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA,
TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
Raleigh, May 15, 1866.

R. W. King, Esq.,

Chairman Lenoir County Court, Kinston, N. C.

Dear Sir:—Yours of the 12th to the Attorney General is referred to me for answer, under the understanding that all questions relating to the Revenue shall be submitted first to this Department. The following opinion meets with the concurrence of the Attorney General:

You desire the proper construction of the act of 1860-'61, 2nd Extra Session, Chap. 5, page 8, as amended by the act of 1862-'3, chap. 18, page 25, regulating the duty of the County Court in laying taxes for county and school purposes.

There can be no question, I think, that these acts are in force, they being certainly "consistent with the Constitution of the State and the United States," and "compatible with allegiance of the citizens of this State to the United States," and therefore made valid by the ordinance of the Convention "declaring what laws and ordinances are in force," page 56.

You desire to know whether the County Court must tax articles mentioned in schedules B and C, of the Revised Code, and if so, how the tax is to be laid.

After careful consideration, I am of opinion that the power of the County Court is confined to the subjects of taxation embraced in schedule A, i. e. to listed taxables.

The act of 1861, as amended by that of 1862-3, is as follows: "The Justices of the several County Courts at the first Court, which shall happen after the first day of January in every year, shall for county and school purposes lay a tax on all such subjects of taxation within the county as may be taxed by the revenue laws then in force, and in the same manner for raising revenue for State purposes. Provided, That the tax imposed by the County Courts, for county purposes, shall be in the same relative proportion as for State purposes, upon the one hundred dollars valuation for every thing, where the tax is laid for State purposes according to valuation, and upon all subjects specially taxed, the tax shall be in proportion to that which is levied for State purposes."

The General Assembly has always been careful as to the extent of power of taxation conferred on the County Courts.

It was at one time gravely questioned whether this branch of sovereignty, the levying contributions from citizens, could under the Constitution be delegated by the Legislature and a resort to the supreme judicial tribunal was necessary to settle the controversy. For a long time a limit was fixed to the discretion of the Courts. For years preceding the passage of the present law, their power of taxation was confined to land and polls.

Certain taxes are on subjects, required to be given in on oath to the list-taker; others are paid directly to the sheriff, others to the clerk of the county court, others to the Public Treasurer. From the former source has always been derived the bulk of the public revenue, and from the foundation of the government until 1861 the jurisdiction of the county court was restricted to two or more items of that class. The other taxes have always been and are now of minor importance. These listed subjects are enumerated in what is known as "schedule A," of the Revenue act, while the other taxes are designated in "schedule B," and "schedule C."

To secure the collection of the taxes from listed subjects or those in schedule A, rules and regulations have ever been prescribed, adapted as well for the State as the county revenue.—Other regulations for the guidance of the sheriff or other officers are laid down to enforce the payment of public dues under schedules B. and C., but these rules are not appropriate to the collection of county revenue from these sources.

Prior to 1861, the County taxes were always imposed on the lists as returned by the list-takers. The Court, knowing the quantum of money to be raised, and, from the lists, the number and value of taxables under their control, easily fixed the rate of assessment, without on the one hand raising an insufficient sum, or on the other oppressing the people by exorbitant levies.

The Convention of 1861 amended the Constitution, so as to make slaves taxable as property, whereupon a revenue law was passed, framed on the ad valorem principle. Money at interest, household and kitchen furniture, land, slaves, and other articles were assessed at an uniform rate according to value, leaving other articles regarded as sumptuary to be especially taxed as had always been customary.

Under such a revenue act there seemed to be no danger in committing all these subjects to the discretion of the County Court, provided discrimination against particular interests was prohibited. Accordingly, at the same session a law was passed, giving this power, and commanding uniformity in the levies.

While, however, the jurisdiction of the Court was extended, the taxes collectable by the Sheriffs and Clerks were not only not lowered, but, in some cases, raised. If the Assembly had intended to subject these to County charges, the State charge would have been so apportioned, as to enable them to bear the double burden.—Without such apportionment, many men of honest callings would be forced to abandon those callings.

The taxes in schedules B. and C. are usually the price of a license to persons exercising particular callings. For many years the General Assembly affixed certain amounts as reasonable for each calling. It is impossible to believe that body would have allowed these amounts to be suddenly doubled or trebled, without some explicit annunciation of the change of policy and adaptation of the revenue machinery to meet the change.

This sudden revolution in policy would aggrandize some counties at the expense of others. Take, for example, the tax on Express Companies, four per cent. on gross receipts. The counties in which these companies have offices would derive large revenues from them, and, if not driven away by the exactions, they would raise their tariff of freights, thus imposing burdens on their consignees, residing in adjoining counties. The banks, whose stockholders are scattered throughout the State, would contribute to swell the revenues of the counties, where their banking houses are located.

Again, as said before, the machinery for raising taxes from listed subjects was well adapted to the collection of the county revenue. It needed no change to meet the requirements of the larger powers of the County Courts. On the contrary, the machinery for collecting the taxes from unlisted subjects could not be used without change for including county charges. Such a change was not made. The provisions securing the levies under schedules B. and C. for the State have not been moulded to secure similar levies for the counties.

Thus far on general principles. Let us now notice the words of the law in their bearing on the present revenue act: The Justices of the County Court are commanded, at the first court, &c., to lay a tax on "such subjects of taxation within the county as may be taxed by the revenue laws then in force," &c. In the preamble of schedule A, the words "subjects of taxation" are used in reference to the taxes there imposed, while in schedule 18, the expression is changed and the Sheriff is ordered to "collect the taxes as set forth in this schedule annually, and grant to each party paying the tax a license."

It will be noticed that the words conferring jurisdiction in the County Courts are identical with the description of taxable objects in schedule A, while these words are not used at all in schedule B. The tax in the latter schedule is usually on the person, as the price of a license for transacting business, and it is expressly provided that on paying the State tax the party is entitled to the license. The requirement of this license is to compel payment. Surely if a county tax is likewise due, its payment would be secured by similar requisition. So in the act for collecting Revenue, the Sheriff is particularly ordered to give license to merchants and others on their paying the "taxes imposed and enumerated in schedule B." So in section 80 bond is required of parties commencing business after July 1st, to secure the payment of State taxes. To ascertain these taxes the Sheriff may administer an oath, but no provision is made at all to obtain county taxes from these sources.

Again, by section 83 the Sheriff must keep a record of the moneys collected by him from the Clerks of the Court (i. e. under schedule C,) and under schedule B, and the clerk must send a copy of this very record to the Comptroller.—The Sheriff must pay the moneys thus ascertained to the Public Treasurer; that is, the Sheriff pays all the taxes collected under schedules B and C to the State. He is nowhere ordered to pay any portion thereof to the county Trustee.

Again, by section 88 of the "Act for Collecting Revenue," if the Clerk fails to pay over the taxes received by him, (mentioned in schedule C.) suit is to be brought and it is expressly provided that "the whole recovery shall be paid to the Treasury." And, in section 87, all the taxes received by the Clerk are to be paid to the Sheriff, and by him, as will appear, by subsequent sections, to the Public Treasury.

So, in section 44, on or before the 1st. day of July, the Clerk must deliver the Sheriff a copy of the tax list, containing the public tax and the taxes imposed by the County Court. There is no other provision for informing the Sheriff of the amount of any other County taxes, than are imposed on listed subjects. If any others were intended to be allowed, it seems certain some provision would have been made for notification to the Sheriff of their imposition.

Another argument may be derived from the words of the proviso, which regulates the mode of taxation by the County Courts. The taxables there spoken of are 1st, things taxed according to value, and, secondly, "subjects specially taxed." The persons who in schedule B. pay specific per centage on their gross receipts or nett profits, are not appropriately described by the terms used in the proviso.

Other arguments might be adduced, but I think the foregoing considerations are sufficient to establish the proposition that the County Courts cannot tax the persons and objects mentioned in schedules B. & C.

Very respectfully,
KEMP P. BATTLE,
Public Treasurer.

Trial of Major Jno. H. Gee.

SYNOPSIS OF TESTIMONY.

WEDNESDAY, May 16, 1866.

I recollect they were to come out and carry in the wood—40 or 50 at a time. I was not limited as to the number. My quarters at Captain Goodman's were in a room adjoining his office.

I recollect officers of the prison came up frequently, and sent requisitions for Quartermaster's supplies. I have seen requisitions of Maj. Gee for straw and lumber. They were not supplied, because we didn't have it. They were very frequent.

Maj. Morfit said that I would do what he told me, and that Maj. Gee might go to the devil.

The first time I was detailed, I was ordered to report to Morfit. Maj. Gee said to take charge of the wood-yard and to issue all I had.

Two prisoners of war complained to Maj. Gee that they had no wood that day. Maj. Gee sent for me. I went to Morfit who told me not to issue. I went back to Maj. Gee who said he had done all he could, to give them two or three sticks out of the pile at headquarters.

Morfit had a notice in the work-shops: "no work done in this shop only by my orders."

Maj. Gee told me to give all the wood I could. Maj. Morfit confined me to a certain number of cords, sometimes verbal, sometimes written. I obeyed Morfit.

Maj. Gee ordered some buckets for the prison hospital. The carpenter refused. I think he referred him to those orders.

Maj. Gee wrote and came frequently to get straw and Quartermaster's supplies. He said he needed them for the prisoners. Capt. Goodman said he did not have them. Gee mentioned blankets, clothing and tents.

Either he or Morfit or both came up to get 20,000 feet of lumber. They wanted it in 20 days. Capt. Goodman said if he got it in 20 months, or 20 years, he'd do well.

Heard an interview between Maj. Gee and Hauser about some men who were out to cut wood. It was very cold. Maj. Gee said to give them a drink of whiskey when the rest got it, but not to let them carry a drop inside; he had no objection to anything else.

Duke would bring up the notes from Major Gee. They were lying on Goodman's desk and I read them.

We didn't have enough transportation to supply the demands on us; it would have taken as much more, besides what we had.

I went to Besson's mill, and he agreed to saw all the lumber he could. He came to see Goodman about it.

I have been short of rations for four or five days at a time. We had plenty before the prisoners came. Provisions were scarce. I got things from home.

There was a cart kept on purpose to police the prison. The yard was laid off into sections, and each section was swept up and the piles were carried off in the cart.

I recollect a conversation between Major Gee and Gen. Winder. Gen. Winder said the prisoners would be removed in ten days. Major Gee wore blue pants, grey jacket, and cap with a black cover. He wore a citizen's overcoat.

At the time Lieutenant Davis was shot, the dead line was staked off. Provisions were taken in by ladies to the hospital. Major Gee went with them one time. Mrs. Mary Smith, Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Correll were the ladies that I recollect.

I have handed in baskets of pies and cakes to a young man named Bride. The prisoners generally carried in anything they could buy. I had orders not to allow them to carry in whiskey.

The prisoners did not conceal what they had.

After getting my written orders, Major Gee gave me orders not to let a drop of whiskey go in; but he had no objection to any provisions.

Leak reported the flanking to Major Gee; he said to let them flank on, that he didn't suppose what they got would hurt them any way.

The barrels were given to the prisoners out of the cook-house. I never heard any complaint of a lack of barrels.

I never heard of any of the prisoners being shot; never saw a crowd fired on. I was in the prison 2 or 3 hours every day, when I was wood sergeant.

I saw the prisoners of war arrive; they were in a bad condition—a good many could not walk.

Freeman's battalion were on guard duty for five days. I relieved another man, because he complained of being unwell. I think he had been on four days them.

Between 300 and 400 negroes came to the prison. They were formed between the two walls of the stockade. The boys got mad and Maj. Gee said if any man or officer molested any of them, they would be punished. I met the prisoners by the bridge on the way to Greensboro. They were in the middle of the streets and the guard on the side walks. People gave them biscuits.

Maj. Gee ordered the prisoners who escaped and were brought back to be taken to the cook-house and given rations. I never knew a prisoner of war to be punished. I was away at the time of the outbreak. I got back the next day. A good many officers about headquarters said the ringleaders ought to be hanged. Maj. Gee said he was going to send them to Richmond.

There was no 4th. N. C. battalion at Salisbury. I drew no clothing after the prisoners of war came to Salisbury.

I have seen places where prisoners escaped.—I have seen Bracket out once or twice.

Court adjourned.

FORTY-NINTH DAY.

THURSDAY, May 17, 1866.

Gunn, Cross-Examined.—There were two trains, four car-loads a day, of wood brought to the prison. Four cords on each car, 32 cords on a train,—average four loads a week, two days each week. The wood-yard was right on the railroad, 70 or 80 yards from the prison. Frequently, we did not have enough to issue.

I would go to each division and get 60 or 70 men. I took as many as I wanted to get the wood. They would go backwards and forwards. Sometimes there was wood left. The average would be 35 or 40 cords a day. When the train broke down, we sent to Young's yard and it was hauled into the prison in waggons. We would have a surplus from the train to put with the wood hauled by the waggons. Each squad furnished men to carry in the wood. That was done by the division sergeant. I have seen 6 or 10 or more waggons hauling. Each good team would haul a cord apiece, or more, a day.

When the prisoners came, 75 or 100 out of 500 or 600 were carried up to the prison. Don't know how many in all. I have seen it five or six times. Some were wounded and some not. They said they were wounded. I was attending to transportation and staying about the office with Capt. Goodman. Had nothing to do with his books and papers. The two prisoners who complained to Maj. Gee were not at the gate, when the wood was issued. It was customary for the guards to go with the prisoners of war to complain to Maj. Gee. I never knew any others to go to him about wood.

Re-Direct.—Others went, but I don't know what for.

The balance of the wood issued that was not brought on the train, was brought on wagons from Capt. Young's. The wagons hauled more than the train. I impressed 18 or 20 wagons—an average a day would be one cord and a half.

James Martin, Stokes Co., farmer.—Went to Salisbury 14th. April '64 and remained till Stoneman came; was a member of Co. B, Freeman's battalion; became Sergeant Major—when the prisoners of war came there. I remained at headquarters at Adj. Stockton's office. I roomed next to Maj. Gee's office. The requisition for the guard went through my hands. I made a requisition for officer of the day, non-commissioned officers and privates. We never got the number. I went to the commanding officer and he said he did'nt have enough men. They fell out of the ranks before they got to the garrison. They were Reserves and Home Guards.

There was no 4th N. C. battallion at that post. There was a Corporal Williams in Co. C.—Don't know any man named Chandler in that company.

Gen. Winder was there soon after the outbreak. I was sitting in Maj. Gee's office—heard Winder say "if they attempt to break out again to shoot the last d—d one of them!"

Maj. Gee's dress was a private's uniform, sky blue pants, jacket with star on the collar and a private's cap with slick black cover, citizen's overcoat, looped with braid across breast, rather brown with furze.

Best was in the same office with me. I recollect seeing a letter from Gee to Gen. Gardner, shortly after the prisoners of war came, not to send any more there, stockade too small, fear of not getting supplies. It was answered by telegraph, "orders from Secretary of War are imperative."

I recollect a requisition for lumber, but not the amount.

I have seen several notes from Capt. Goodman to Major Gee. They were answers, giving excuse for not furnishing supplies. One about straw, one about lumber. I have seen two or three of those notes. I was at the depot when the outbreak occurred. I was inside in the morning. Some of the cooks asked me if the 68th. was going to leave. A freight train whistled, and cannon fired. Some one said the prisoners were breaking out. They started and ran before that the second cannon fired. The last one fired before I got to the prison. I did not see Major Gee for two minutes after I went in; he was coming from the N. W. angle,—hallooing to the men on the platform, not to fire any more. I saw some that were killed,—the sergeant of the relief guard, and an old reserve that fell off from the beat. These men on the platform were troops and a good many citizens. Major Gee ordered Lt. Stockton to go in with a company and bring out the guns. I went in with them. We brought out some nine guns. The rest were thrown in the wells, but were brought out afterwards; some nineteen in all. Three of the Sergt. Majors were brought out. Some wanted to hang them. Major Gee ordered them to be put in the guard-house. They were sent to Richmond next day.

I have seen the party on the wood train carry in provisions, but not whiskey. The sergeant's name was Southard. He was suspected of taking in whiskey. Another party went out to cut ice. (Witness gave a statement similar to that in Mr. Hauser's testimony.)

I have seen them at the little gate, near headquarters, bringing in provisions. Major Gee was out one time when they came in. The sergeant told him; he said to examine them, and not let them carry in any liquor. An old reserve was going to carry in about 50 large ginger cakes. Easeman found them in his possession and brought them to Major Gee's office. He told him to carry them in. He took them and carried them to an open spot and told the boys to charge. The prisoners got them.

Major Gee asked Bracket how he got out—he was not punished. One squad was brought back, that had escaped. Major Gee ordered some one (Nichols, I think,) to give them rations. I never knew any one punished.

Morfit's parole to prisoners, the last part of it, was, that they would consent to be shot, if they escaped and were recaptured. Major Gee made the remark, it was making a man swear his life away. The provisions were always examined. Dr. Wilson, of Gold Hill, told Major Gee of an acquaintance inside. Mr. Lyerly brought him out. Dr. Wilson gave him a blanket. Mr. Lyerly took charge of the money. I remember 2 or 3 boxes sent from the North and taken inside.

Rev. Mr. Rumple came down and said he had a letter from Dr. Moore to supply a friend. The man was brought out. He offered to supply him, but the man did not accept. He was a prisoner of war.

I was inside 4 or 5 times a week. I never saw a placard signed by Major Gee calling for recruits. I heard of it from the prisoners.

Have heard Maj. Gee say he had no confidence in deserters. My impression was that it was put up by Lyerly. He was recruiting himself; he told me so; he had the promise of a commission in Maj. Andrew's battallion.

I never heard Maj. Gee say anything about the placards. The stockade lacked 7 or 8 inches of touching the ground in a few places. On the west side I saw the place where some prisoners scratched through.

Some officer brought his men out and formed them in line; one was not a foreigner and he kicked him; Maj. Gee said he had no right to kick him; he was a prisoner of war and could not be maltreated in his presence.

Taylor, the police sergeant, hit a prisoner of war with his stick; Maj. Gee said if he did it again, he would put him in the guard house.—

I have seen prisoners dispersed by the guard—not fired on.

I saw Maj. Gee every day. I have heard him say that supplies were short, that they were suffering and that he was doing all in his power. He never made that remark to me, but to the officers.

I frequently assisted Lieut. Couch in the evening to count the prisoners; I once reported "flanking" to Maj. Gee; he said let it go.

The barrels at the cook house? I have seen pieces of them lying around the fires of the prisoners, some were used as chimneys.

Our battallion did guard duty for 50 days when the prisoners first came.

We made requisition for 15 days. We once fell short four days, another time the flour was so bad we could not eat it. I went to try to exchange it, but they did not have any better.

We got sorghum when we did not have meat, all but one time. We got provisions from home. The time we went without for four days was just before Christmas. I used to get in my box ham, biscuit, light bread, butter, fowls, cakes, &c.

I drew no clothes after the prisoners of war came. I tried to get shoes, but could not.

Colored prisoners came from Richmond.—Orders were given to treat them as prisoners of war. Some of our boys said they would like to shoot two or three of them. Maj. Gee said they could not, and turned to the negroes and told them if they were maltreated by any one to complain and he would have them punished.

There were notices in Morfit's workshops for no one to come in. Have heard Morfit say he was not under Gee's control.

I remember Maj. Turner's being there. I dont remember being sent to see about pumps.

There were no rolls with the prisoners of war. Mr. Campbell, Lewis and Palmer made them out. They were at work up to Christmas.

Snead's company went off with the 68th. to the depot. The prison officials, Messrs. Leak, Nichols, Kneass and Duke, were in that Company.

Cross Examined.—The number of detail of guard was from 150 to 300 men. I have known it 75 men short. It was never filled up. The form of this requisition was: I require for guard duty to-morrow, at this post,——so many men.

It was signed by Major Gee. Maj. Gee made requisitions on Goodman. I don't remember about Morfit. I remember one detective.

I never saw any one stopped from giving food to the prisoners. The guard was not allowed to trade with prisoners. I don't know what our daily allowance was. Don't remember being out of flour any other times than I have mentioned. I wrote to Mr. Miller, at New York, asking him what the charges against Major Gee were. I wrote from home.

[Concluded to-morrow.]

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Thos. Smith, Petersburg, announces a new and splendid "opening of goods." Mr. S. is one of the most enterprising merchants of the South. He is certainly one of the most liberal advertisers; and that is always a good sign.

Richmond's Plows and Castings,—J. M. Towles.

Cowper & Moore have a fresh arrival of Cockade City Ale.

J. J. Litchford, Auctioneer, announces an attractive auction for Monday next.

Capt. C. J. IREDELL, of this City, is Agent to solicit and receive contributions to the proposed monument, in Virginia, to the memory of Gen. J. E. B. Stuart. The gallant men from this State who served under the great Cavalry Chieftain, as well as the many other admirers of the dashing and intrepid Cavalier, will be pleased at an opportunity of testifying, in so appropriate a manner, their appreciation of his character and services.

SUNDAY SCHOOL EXCURSION.—The teachers and children connected with the Baptist Sabbath School, in this City, made a pleasure excursion to Forestville, on yesterday, where they doubtless enjoyed themselves famously, notwithstanding the unpropitious weather. We regret that we were unable to accept the complimentary invitation to join them in the pleasures of the occasion. Heaven bless the children! A few hours passed in the midst of their innocent enjoyments, in these days of selfishness and trouble, would do one good. Will not some one of the excursionists furnish us an account of the trip?

LADIES' MEMORIAL ASSOCIATION.—Owing to the inclemency of the day, the ladies' meeting, on Thursday evening, though respectably attended, was not so full as was desired. It was therefore resolved to postpone further action, until Wednesday of next week, when, the weather favoring, there will doubtless be a full turn-out of our patriotic fair.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE IN GOLDSBORO.—We are pained to learn that a destructive conflagration occurred in Goldsboro, on Thursday night, by which the News office, the National Express office, Day's Store, and other buildings, were destroyed. We have no further particulars, though the loss is reported to be very heavy. Our excellent friends of the News have our sincerest sympathies in their misfortune. We trust that they will be speedily enabled to rise from their ashes.

NEWSPAPER CHANGES.—We have heretofore inadvertently omitted to notice the enlargement of the Wilson Carolinian. It is now one of the largest and handsomest journals in the State.—We are pleased to chronicle this evidence of its prosperity.

Col. Barry has taken exclusive charge of our valued exchange, the Wilmington Dispatch,—Mr. Bernard having assumed sole control of the Job Department. The Dispatch is readable, sprightly, and deservedly popular.

THE ELECTION for a delegate to the Convention from Wayne Co., vice T. J. Kennedy, resigned, took place on Thursday. We have returns only from the Goldsboro box, where the result was: Thos. Person 59, Geo. W. Collier, 46.

REVIVAL IN LOUISBURG.—The Eagle mentions a revival of considerable interest as progressing in the Methodist Church in Louisburg. The services are conducted by the Rev. Jesse A. Cuninggim.

WE LEARN that the down accommodation train on the Wilmington and Weldon Rail Road passed over the body of a white man lying on the track at Goshen Grove trestle, on Monday last. The body was not perceived until it was too late to stop the train. After passing over the body the train was stopped as soon as possible, and upon examination it was discovered that the man lying upon the track bore upon his person signs of violence other than the wounds caused by the train. There is no doubt existing in the minds of those who saw the body, that the person was murdered and placed there by the vile perpetrators of the deed, in order to shield themselves.—Wil. Journal.

THE CATAWBA BRIDGE.—This beautiful and substantial iron structure is completed, and the trains passed over it yesterday for the first time. It is three hundred yards long, making nine spans, and reflects great credit on the President of the road and the Engineer who superintended its construction. The trains now run without let or hindrance over the entire line. The advantages of this route to travelers from the South and West were fully set forth in our issue of Monday, and we deem it only necessary now to state that the bridge across the Catawba river is finished,—thus we are again in communication with the Queen City of the South, and we trust soon to see business relations resumed.—Charlotte Times.

Public Meeting in Randolph County.

On Tuesday, the 8th day of May inst., it being the Tuesday of May Court, there was a public meeting of the citizens of Randolph held in the Court House, to express their opinions upon the momentous questions which are now agitating the country. The large court room was filled with an anxious and attentive crowd.

On motion, Col. Zebedee Rush was called to the Chair, and Joseph H. Brown appointed Secretary.

The Chairman on taking his seat addressed the meeting in an earnest and impressive manner, expressing the hope that some good would result from their assembling together; if wise counsels now prevailed, there was a brighter future ahead.

On the conclusion of his remarks he called upon B. B. Bulla, Esq., who explained the object of the meeting more in detail, heartily endorsing the policy of President Johnson.

On motion of H. J. Harris, Esq., a committee consisting of Messrs. Jesse G. Hinshaw, Joseph Causey and H. J. Harris were appointed by the Chair to prepare resolutions for the action of the meeting.

In the absence of the Committee, Robert P. Dick, Esq., addressed the meeting at length in an eloquent and impressive manner. He earnestly advocated and endorsed the policy of President Johnson; hoped that we should all forget and forgive the past, that we had nearly all of us been wrong, that he had been wrong himself and could not take the test oath, and that the only question with him now was whether a man was loyal and loved his country. If he was so now, he was ready to take him by the hand, as a brother. On the conclusion of Mr. Bick's remarks, a vote of thanks was tendered him by the meeting for his speech. The Committee reported the following preamble and resolutions to wit:

WHEREAS, The passions engendered by the terrible struggle from which we have just emerged render vigilance, at all times essential to the preservation of liberty, now peculiarly requisite to the preservation of the constitutional rights of the people; and

Whereas, It is the duty of all, where they witness their public servants plant themselves on the constitution of the country, and boldly roll back the waves of sectionalism and fanaticism which are threatening to overwhelm that sacred instrument, as President Johnson and his supporters in and out of Congress are now doing, to hold up the right arm of these public servants and bid them "God speed;" and

Whereas, It is of the greatest importance that men of undoubted loyalty, experience and patriotism only should be elevated to high positions in the several States—especially the Southern States, in order to strengthen the arm of President Johnson in his struggle for the maintenance of the principles of the constitution of our fathers; and

Whereas, The well known loyalty and remarkable unanimity with which the people of Randolph county opposed the late rebellion in its inception entitle them to be heard;

Therefore, Resolved, That in the opinion of the people of Randolph here assembled, President Johnson's course should command the most hearty approval of all lovers of the constitution and the Union, and that he challenges our admiration at the firmness with which he has continually repelled all the assaults upon the constitution and the Union, whether made by men calling themselves secessionists or by men carried away by the wild frenzy of radicalism and fanaticism.

Resolved, That we believe the success of Republicanism on the American continent depends upon the success of his policy, to the promotion of which we pledge our support by all peaceful and lawful means.

Resolved, That we most heartily endorse and approve of the administration of the State Government by his Excellency, Governor Worth, and we do most earnestly recommend him to our fellow-citizens of the State for re-election next August. Raised as he was, among us, we know him always to have been a gentleman and conservative statesman, at all times opposed to the heresy of secession and to the inauguration of that terrific contest which has covered the land with mourning, and now we regard him as earnestly opposed to that radical and levelling spirit which threatens mischief in the future, unless wise counsels like his shall ultimately prevail.

There was no objection by any one to the 1st. and 2nd. resolutions. Objection being raised to the 3rd. resolution, they were, on motion, voted upon one by one.

The 3rd. resolution endorsing Governor Worth was earnestly advocated by Messrs. Hinshaw, Causey, Harris, Freeman, Hill, the Chairman Col. Rush, and John A. Gilmer, Jr., Esq. The latter gentleman, in the course of his speech on the resolutions, all of which he with his whole heart approved, only regretted that this action endorsing President Johnson and Gov. Worth had not first been made in Guilford, his own county.

The 3rd. resolution was opposed by Dr. Sellars.

The question was taken on this, the 3rd. resolution, the Chairman requesting every man to vote:

Whereupon it was passed, with enthusiasm, and almost unanimously. Out of the hundreds present who voted, not more than a half dozen voted against it.

On motion it was

Resolved, That the proceedings of the meeting be forwarded to the Greensboro Patriot for publication, and that all other papers in the State be requested to copy.

Whereupon the meeting adjourned.

J. H. BROWN, Secretary.

An Extraordinary Statement in Regard to Rheumatism and Pleurisy.

Peter Vaden, Esq., Dinwiddie county, Va., (Nov. 6, 1865) says: "In August 1857, my wife, aged 46 years, was taken ill with what the doctor called a Bilious Rheumatism affecting her whole system, rendering her entirely helpless, so much so, that she had to be lifted and fed as an infant, for the pace of three months, suffering the most excruciating pain; her hands drawn out of shape and stiff, so that she could not use them. After all other remedies failed, in January 1858, I was advised to get the SOUTHERN HEPATIC PILLS for her. She used the Pills strictly according to the directions accompanying them, and we soon discovered a change for the better, and in one month's time she was well and continued so up to the present time; as become lively, sweetful, and as active as one could be of her age. One of my servants was taken with a violent attack of Bilious Pleurisy. I gave him those Pills, and in about ten days he was up and at his work; said that he felt as well as he ever did, and has continued well ever since. Another was taken with Pleurisy. I gave the Pills, and she was well and at her work in ten days after she commenced using them. My Doctor's bill has been heretofore from $175 to 200 per year. I have used them in my family which consists of eighteen white and colored, and have not called in a doctor during the year. This is a great saving. They certainly are the best family medicine ever discovered. After a fair trial I can recommend them as such."

A NEW AND GRAND EPOCH IN MEDICINE!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses dilapidate the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast supersceding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggiel's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is here announced that Maggiel's Bilious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhea Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 41 Fulton Street, New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box. Sold by all Druggists in Raleigh.

COTTON GINS,

MANUFACTURED BY

W. G. CLEMONS, BROWN & CO.,

COLUMBUS, GA.

WE have received the manufacture of Cotton Gins in this city, and will be prepared to fill orders by 1st June next. As we shall not be, as heretofore, represented by traveling agents, parties wishing our Gins, will confer a favor by sending in their orders at an early day. As owing to the demand, we shall be unable to keep a stock in the hands of our local agents, as it was our practice before the war. All business transactions being now reduced to cash, our sales will be made on the basis of ready pay.

Our Gins are too well known to require any special notice or commendation; we believe they are unrivalled in the chief points of excellence which go to make up a superior machine, namely: Speed light draught and good sample.

Our DOUBLE CYLINDER GINS will be found superior to the single cylinder, when parties have steam or good water power, to give them the necessary speed. In all cases when this can be done, we recommend them in preference to the single cylinder. If, however, indifferent or insufficient power is used, they will not do as well as the single Gin.

Messrs. DaROSSET & CO., Wilmington, N. C., are our general agents for the State of North Carolina.

W. G. CLEMONS, BROWN & CO.

Columbus, Ga., April 24 '66.

We will give prompt attention to orders for the above celebrated Gins from any part of the State. The price is five dollars ($5) per Saw at the Factory, and five dollars for each Gin will only be charged to purchasers for transportation to this point.

CLEANSE THE BLOOD.

With corrupt, disordered or vitiated Blood, you are sick all over. It may burst out in Pimples, or Sores, or in some active disease, or it may merely keep you listless depressed and good for nothing. But you cannot have good health while your blood is impure. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA purges out these impurities and stimulates the organs of digestion vigorous action, restoring the health and expelling disease. Hence it rapidly cures a variety of complaints which are caused by impurity of the blood, such as Scrofula, or Kings' Evil, Tumors, Ulcers, Sores, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Boils, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ring Worm, Cancer or Cancerous Tumors, Sore Eyes, Female Diseases, such as Retention, Irregularity, Suppression, Whites, Sterility, also Syphilis or Venereal Diseases, Liver Complaints, and Heart Diseases. Try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and see for yourself the surprising activity with which it cleanses the blood and cures these disorders.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Hence, bitter disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound "Sarsaparilla," and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. We can only assure the sick, that we offer them the best alterative which we know how to produce, and we have reason to believe, it is by far the most effectual purifier of the blood yet discovered by any body.

Ayers Cherry Pectoral is so universally known to surpass every other remedy for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease, that it is useless here to recount the evidence of its virtues. The world knows them.

Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER & Co., Lowell, Mass., and sold by Williams & Haywood, P. F. Pescud, Raleigh, N. C., and Dealers generally.

WHITE SULPHUR AND CHALYBEATE SPRINGS.

THE UNDERSIGNED has the satisfaction of announcing to the public, that he has leased these celebrated Springs, and that they will be opened for the reception of visitors on the first day of June ensuing.

His arrangements are of that complete and extensive character, that he will be able to accommodate a large number of guests and to offer greater attractions than usual to those who may visit

This pleasant and healthful resort.

No trouble or expense will be spared to render his patrons comfortable and well fed

The grounds are elegantly laid off, and the buildings are enlarged and improved.

He will have ICE, MILK, VEGETABLES, and all the substantials and delicacies of the table in profusion.

An ICE CREAM SALOON and SODA FOUNTAIN will be attached to the establishment, where those refreshments, as well as CONFECTIONERY, Fruits &c., can be always obtained.

The bar will be supplied with the finest liquors, and a billiard saloon and bowling alley, for amusement and exercise, be at the disposal of visitors.

The Medicinal Properties

Of the Sulphur water have been amply tested during many years by a large number of visitors, and its beneficial results strikingly displayed in the cure or relief of Dyspepsia, Affections of the Liver, Jaundice, Diseases of the Skin, &c.

Another Spring has been discovered in the vicinity of the establishment, an accurate scientific analysis of which [given below] proves that it is a valuable Chalybeate. It is a mild and gentle tonic, and in the opinion of the physicians who have examined it, and witnessed its effects in some cases during several seasons, must prove beneficial in Atonic Dyspepsia, Chlorosis, Uterine, Nervous and Neuralgic Affections connected with Debility; and of especial service to persons living in malarious regions of country, whose blood has been robbed of its normal proportion of iron by repeated attacks of malarial fevers.

Persons travelling on the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad will always find a line of stages, under the management of Mr Granger, ready for their accommodation at Warrenton Depot. There will be a daily mail from Warrenton to the Springs.
